

This news is about: Express News \( Express \), it was published at Date: 2014-12-31,

LAHORE: Youth Minister Rana Mashhood said on Thursday that a ceremony would be held on Thursday (today) at the Alhamra Cultural Complex Gaddafi Stadium to mark the International Day of Volunteers.

The event is being organised by the Youth Affairs Department, Bargad, a youth-based volunteer network and.. ;

You might have seen that siasat.info is now showing news from different sources. Its all for our valued viewers/users who has less time to mine the news from different sources or to get the main point/information from a news covering a passage or a page. We believe that it will surely help you to get the latest information about political situation in Pakistan and rest of the world. Earlier siasat.info was mainly dedicated to politics in Pakistan but now it is covering other countries as well so that other citizens may also get to know about political situations in their countries. We specially try to give you latest updates about elections and security situations from round the globe. As we are gathering this data/information from internet (Newspapers, TV Channels, Facebook or Tweets) so we can not assure about the reliability of the news, however we try our best to provide you the source name with every news item so that you can validate the news items yourself or read the news in details.

Security situation in developing countries is really alarming and everyone linked by any mean to these countries wish to be in touch with news just to know the latest happenings in those developing countries. Siasat.info is a reliable source where you can get the latest informations/news from different sources about your favourite country.